H. B. ESCAPES OIL FIRE DISASTER

FAIR Enough

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER

The Delaware legislature has censured your correspondent for believing that some of the statesmen were tight on the closing night of the recent session when the lower house clean forgot to pass the customary appropriation for the support of the public schools. And, according to the accepted Delaware standard, established in 1875, your correspondent owes the honorable body an apology which is hereby tendered.

The accepted Delaware standard was established by a character witness in a case before Chancellor Nickerson, an historic Delaware jurist who still lives. On that occasion, the witness was asked if the defendant had been drunk. He answered, "No," and the prosecution then asked, "When do you consider a man to be drunk?"

"A man is drunk," the character witness said, "when he lies on the ground and clutches the grass to hang on."

This definition differs only in minor particulars from the pre-war army definition cited by General Hugh Johnson from the testimony of a sergeant before a court martial.

"The man was not drunk," said the sergeant, "because when I kicked him, he moved."

Reliable informants advise your correspondent that no member of the Delaware legislature lay on the ground and clutched the grass to hang on during the closing hours of the recent regular session (See PEGLER, Page 6)

SECRET COPS IN GERMANY GET BUSY

Press Aims New Vicious
Attack on Catholics,
Jews and LaGuardia

BERLIN. (AP)—The powerful Gestapo, German secret state police, began today to seek detailed information on German sources from which it believed that George Cardinal Mundelein obtained the information for his investigation of third reich's attitude toward the Catholic church.

Reproductions of purported American newspaper accounts, published here, said the Chicago cardinal obtained his data about "immorality" trials of German Catholic monks and lay brothers and other material on the church-state situation from German residents relayed through the Franciscan Sisters in Illinois.

Penalty Is Ax.

If the identity of any of these Germans can be established, it was learned, they will be punishable under German law which classes as treason the circulation of "false reports" likely to do damage to the fatherland.

The penalty for treason is the death's-head ax.

What is regarded as even more probable is that the state will move against organizations, rather than individuals, if it can establish what it deems to be culpability. Many religious orders were considered to be the target of the Edwardian Warf union.

Press Continues Attack.

The controlled Nazi press renewed its broadsides against American Jews and Catholics today, and demanded that the Vatican "call to order" Cardinal Mundelein for attacks on Adolf Hitler. (Vatican sources said that re-

HENDAYE, France—Spanish frontier. (AP)—Insurgent Spanish广播 today an announcement that a Basque government air battery had fired the Basque yacht Gómez-Izarra, carrying refugees out of Bilbao.

Diplomatic sources disclosed that the Gómez-Izarra left Bilbao today and was expected to arrive at Puillac, France, tonight, where hundreds of refugees from the civil war have been landed in recent weeks.

The yacht also was said to have been convoyed by a British destroyer while the British battleship Royal Oak patrolled in nearby waters.

Water Committee
Waits Board Action

Water committeemen of the farm bureau today had hashed over the flood control situation thoroughly, but were waiting for the board of supervisors to settle the amount of the bond issue before taking action.

The committee discussed the $13,000,000 program yesterday, but took no action.

Grandpaw says "Well, you've only been married to her for three months," and he says "Yes, but I've found out that she's deceitful. This morning when I was telling her where I was last night she pretended to believe every word I said when I know very well she knew I was lying."

Wally, Duke Pass Up Church Rite

MONTA, France. (AP)—There will be no religious ceremony to unite the Duke of Windsor and Wallis Warfield, their spokesman announced tonight.

Herman L. Rogers made the announcement. He refused to say why the plans for a religious service, to follow the civil service on June 3, had been abandoned.

It was known, however, that the duke and his fiancee had been trying without much success to find an Anglican pastor who would marry them in the face of the church's stand against remarriage of divorced persons and its constant opposition to the Edwardian Warf union.

The British government was reported today by a source close to the Duke of Windsor to have denied the former monarch the protection of the British navy for a honeymoon cruise down the coast of civil war-torn Spain.

After three days at the famed watering place, the royal couple were to cruise on a British yacht down the Spanish coast, through the Straits of Gibraltar to the Mediterranean and the romantic Dalmatian coast of Yugoslavia.

The owner of the yacht, which Edward planned to use, had insisted upon the naval protection.

There was a possibility the duke might change his honeymoon plans completely, or might seek a foreign yacht and protection for the cruise. It was pointed out that the Prince Regent Paul of Yugoslavia was a close friend of Windsor and might offer a Yugoslavian convoy.

Windsor, his friends said, was considering turning to a foreign nation for the guarantee of safety which he was unable to get from the naval empire he once ruled.

The original honeymoon plan was said to have called for Windsor and his duchess to leave the Chateau de Cande immediately after their wedding June 3 for an automobile trip to Biarritz, a French resort on the Bay of Biscay whose waters also wash the Basque coast of northern Spain.

END SEEN IN YOUTH HOME TANGLE

Snarls in the juvenile home tangle began to unravel today following a meeting of the juvenile committee last night.

Out of the meeting came the clarifying information that the juvenile committee will not ask the board of supervisors to confirm the appointment of Fred Germany as detention home superintendent.

That, it was stated, is a job for Superior Judge H. G. Ames, judge of the juvenile court. Members of the committee said that it is not the committee's place to ask for the confirmation.

Mrs. R. W. Marvin, Anaheim, secretary of the committee, refused to discuss the situation at the juvenile home, further than to say that the committee has complied with the law in every respect.

However, it was learned from a member of the committee that the committee had recommended to Judge Ames that Fred Germany, former local butcher, be appointed head of the juvenile home. Germany is in the job at the juvenile home, replacing Miss Adah Boroff, who was released from the job.

Judge Ames, it is expected, will ask the board of supervisors to confirm the appointment of Germany. Judge Ames had approved of the recommendation of the juvenile committee.

Questioned about the situation today by The Journal, Judge Ames said that he was not in the habit of giving out interviews on his court affairs.

"Nothing personal," he said. "Have a cigarette?"

Reorganization of the juvenile committee featured the meeting last night, held in the home of Mrs. R. W. Jones, of El Modena.

Albert Sitton, Fullerton, was elected chairman of the committee, succeeding J. A. Cranston, Santa Ana, who has served as chairman for the past 27 years. T. B. Talbert, Huntington Beach, was elected vice chairman, and Mrs. Marvin was re-elected secretary.

Members of the board of supervisors were a bit put out last Tuesday because they have not been considered in the move to name a new superintendent at the juvenile home or consulted about a $10,000 building project. It is not expected that they will object to confirming the appointment of Germany, but are expected to object to the proposed building program.

INSURANCE ON ZEP IS PAID

BERLIN. (AP)—Approximately $2,400,000 insurance on the destroyed Hindenburg has been paid, the Zeppelin company said today.

This represents virtually the full amount of insurance on the Zeppelin, of which $2,000,000 was held by English brokers and the remainder by German companies. The ship cost $3,000,000.

An additional payment of about $10,000 per passenger is expected for each of the 36 who died in the crash at Lakehurst, N. J.

40 and 8 Plans Amateur Contest

Persons wishing to enter the Forty and Eight amateur contest may do so by contacting the Legion post commanders in their communities, it was revealed here today. The contest is planned in connection with a charity circus.

Eliminations will be held at the local posts near the end of the month and finals will be conducted in Santa Ana June 7, 8, 9.

Cash awards will be offered in Santa Ana, and the final winner will go to a Los Angeles theater for one night, and then will spend the rest of the week at two other metropolitan theater houses.

All amateurs in La Habra, Brea and Buena Park should get in touch with Dave Day at 417 South Spadra for the contest in Fullerton next Tuesday, Garden Grove Wednesday, and Santa Ana Thursday.

The Forty and Eight will be assisted by the drum and bugle corps of the Santa Ana Legion post.

End Comes for Walter Foote, 76

Walter Edward Foote, 76, died last night at his home, 515 East Myrtle street, after an illness of several years. He was a retired farmer, having come to Santa Ana in 1925 from his home at Sparta, Ws., where the body will be shipped for burial in the family plot.

His wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Foote, will accompany the body East after funeral services are held tomorrow at 10 a. m. at the Brown and Wagner Funeral home with the Rev. Perry F. Schrock officiating.

Mrs. Bates Sues Over Auto Crash

Mrs. Lucille Bates, who was the "Silver Acres Water Queen" several months ago before the West Fifth street community arranged for another and peaceful way to get domestic water, appeared in court records again today.

She was plaintiff in a $50 small claims suit this time, charging that John F. Nielson was responsible for an auto accident which damaged her car. The case was filed in Santa Ana justice court.

MORE ABOUT GERMANY

(Continued from Page 1) gardless of what press attacks might be made in Germany on George Cardinal Mundelein of Chicago for his criticism of the Hitler government, the Vatican would not take action. The prelates reiterated that the cardinal, being head of a diocese, was free to speak to his people as he thought best. There was no thought in the Vatican of repudiating him, they said.

Aimed at La Guardia

The outbursts were extended to include not only the cardinal but Catholics and Jews generally and Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia, of New York, in particular.

Under the caption of "hair-raising immorality in New York high schools," the official news agency distributed an item through Germany describing an investigation into charges that there had been wholesale bootlegging of contraceptives among students of Brooklyn high schools. "This action by the board of education," the dispatch said, "is further evidence of what unheard of things are possible in this city under the eyes of the Jew LaGuardia."

Investigation on Showdown

An investigation is being made by District Attorney William F. X. Geoghan of Brooklyn into what he termed immorality among high school students in that borough.

The press generally insisted on a definite showdown with the Vatican over Cardinal Mundelein's description of the reichschancellor as "an Austrian paperhanger, and a poor one at that" and of German trials of priests and lay brothers on immorality charges as worse propaganda than the atrocity tales of the World War.

The Catholic church was described as defending the condition it was powerless to end because of the question of prestige.

Tabulates Offenses

State's Attorney Mattingen in an interview tabulated more than 1000 alleged sex offenses which resulted in charges against priests and lay brothers of the church.

About 150 offenders were sent abroad, he said, while 150 cases were passed by the statute of limitations. Three hundred of the remaining 700 were reported to have been brought to trial including 80 on which sentences have been passed.

The fortnightly issue of Gen. Erich Ludendorff's Neo-Paganist magazine, in an article by his wife, Dr. Mathilde Ludendorff, blamed the immorality cases on the institution of celibacy among the clergy.

BROOKLYN OFFICIAL CALLS CHARGE "SILLY"

NEW YORK. (AP)—District Attorney William F. X. Geoghan, of Brooklyn, today labeled the attack of the Nazi press on school conditions in Brooklyn and on Mayor La Guardia as "silly and baseless."

New York schools are above reproach, he said, save for certain "outside evil influences" which his office is combatting.

"Evidently the author (of the Nazi attacks) like many people here has accepted inaccurate and grossly exaggerated newspaper accounts as authority for his statement," Geoghan said in a typewritten statement.

"If it is any information to the official news agency in Berlin, permit me to emphasize the fact that the educational system in our New York schools is not excelled any place in the world."

"This talk about widespread immorality in these schools is nonsensical. Any one who makes such an accusation is not telling the truth."

LA GUARDIA SUGGESTS JOB FOR SEWER CHIEF

SAN FRANCISCO. — Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia of New York suggested today that German press comment on asserted immorality in New York High schools be referred to the New York sewer commissioner.

"Statements such as those made in the German press," said La Guardia, "can only be referred to Commissioner Binger who has Eighteen persons have entered the tournament that will be run on the double-elimination principle. This means that each contestant will be defeated twice before he is eliminated from the running. Two women have entered the contest.

An odd number of pairings resulted in two byes that will have to be decided tomorrow night. Hugh Walker will face the winner of the Edward Budd-Harold Harvey match, and Ray Dawson will meet the winner of the Ray Foster-Carroll Richardson game.

Match play will begin at 7 p. m. Each contest will be for two out of three games of 21 points each. R. Carson Smith is chairman of the committee in charge.

Other pairings announced are: Forest White vs. T. Gray Johnson; Mrs. C. G. Ward vs. Kenneth Nissley; R. Carson Smith vs. Harold Barrett; Edward Budd vs. Harold Harvey; C. G. Ward vs. L. B. Dr. C. F. W. Kohlenberger of Fullerton, chairman of Red Cross first aid work in Northern Orange county, today announced that standard first aid certificates had been awarded to two classes.

One class at Placentia, conducted by Dr. E. H. Brunneiner, included Mrs. A. M. Christensen, Myra N. Heverly, Frona E. Hodges, Mrs. Dorothy L. Hooper, Olive H. Johnson, Edith H. Light, Cora E. Pickeraugh, Arthur C. Schalles, Rose L. Seale, Vista Fae Wyatt and Mrs. J. W. Sweet.

The second class, taught by Arthur Nunn, at Fullerton, included Ira Colman, Ray Funnell, Edward Schabert, Richard Summers and Charles Whitaker of Fullerton; S. S. Smith and Stanley Gould of Brea; Douglas Lawhead of Seal Beach; Bill Newsom of Garden Grove; Bob Bray, Claude Horan, Kenneth McNicoll, De Vere Christensen of Los Angeles, and Pauel Papich and Bob Sellers of Hollywood.

Arthur Nunn, physical education instructor at the Fullerton Union High school, recently completed a special course of instruction under Dr. Kohlenberger and has been certified as a first aid instructor by the American National Red Cross. A special course certificate, also an instructor's certificate have been presented by the chapter to Nunn.

New Charge Hits Kenneth Cairnes

Kenneth Cairnes, Santa Ana youth in the county jail, awaiting trial on charges of robbery, grand theft and kidnaping, was accused of another crime today.

Cairnes was identified by Mrs. L. Jane Lee of Buena Park as the young man who talked with her about renting a room on the day she found her watch was missing. Questioned by Deputy Sheriff James Musick and G. F. McKeye, Cairnes assertedly confessed taking the watch and pawning it for 50 cents in Los Angeles.

NEW YORK. (AP)—Mrs. Eleonore Pruss, wife of Capt. Max Pruss, commander of the dirigible Hindenburg, arrived today on the Hamburg American liner Deutscheschiff, her faith in lighter-than-air travel unimpaired by the tragedy of the great ship.

Buses Will Use P. E. Depot Here

Remodeling of Pacific Electric headquarters at 426 East Fourth will start within the next few days to accommodate Pacific Greyhound and Motor Transit lines that will occupy the building jointly with Pacific Electric, starting June 1, it was revealed here today.

The construction job will probably be under direct supervision of Motor Transit's construction department, according to information from the Santa Ana office.

Operation schedules of all three companies will continue as they have in the past. There will be no revisions or changes because of the move on the part of Motor Transit and Greyhound.

Occupation of the new quarters probably will be on or near June 1 when the bus lines will move from their present location at Third and Sprague streets.

WELSH'S BILL ON SENATE FLOOR

Olson, Westover Vote To Kill It; Standard Royalty Ratified

The Huntington Beach tideland oil situation was still in a muddled condition today.

The Olson bill providing for exploitation of the state-owned oil pool has been signed by the governor, but the senate has before it the Welsh bill which, if passed, would repeal the Olson bill. The Welsh bill already has passed the assembly.

Two important oil matters are in a state of being decided, but they still are up in the air.

Independent Wells

The senate has voted to ratify an agreement whereby the Standard Oil Company would pay the state $505,592 for oil and gas removed from the state's pool in recent years. The assembly also has ratified this bill.

The third attack on the oil problem relates to independents who have wells at Huntington Beach. The state wants to know who is trespassing on its Huntington Beach holdings. A bill was before the senate yesterday instructing the director to report to the attorney general names of all persons or companies which are trespassers.

The list, if the bill is passed, must be accompanied by a statement as to whether an agreement has been negotiated with the state for compensation for the oil. If not, the attorney general is ordered to start civil actions for recovery, or injunction suits.

Old Agreements

All contracts previously entered into would be validated by the act.

Several years ago the state entered agreements with about 80 independents with whipsawed wells, and announced that no more such agreements would be made if new wells were drilled. Now the state apparently wants to know if any more wells have been drilled.

A clash between Senator Olson and Assemblyman Welsh, both of Los Angeles, preceded the senate oil industries committee's action yesterday in sending the Welsh drilling bill to the senate floor for passage.

Olson and Westover

Olson moved to table the bill after the assemblyman had completed his presentation and only Senator Westover, Santa Ana, voted with him. The two also voted not to recommend the bill for passage. Senators Wagy, Bakersfield; Parkman, San Mateo; De Lan, Richmond, and Mc Bride, Ventura, voted against tabling the bill and to send it to the senate floor.

"Do you know how much money was spent to get your bill this far?" asked Olson, whose bill on Huntington Beach oil drilling into state tidelands has been signed by the governor.

"Not as much as was spent to get your bill out," replied Welsh.

Oil Firms Pleaded

"You really don't think any money was spent on my bill?" said Olson as the committee began to vote.

Welsh said his bill, which would permit upland and ocean drilling, was satisfactory to all oil companies, including the Standard Oil, except one small group of independents.

It provides for bidding on drilling into the state's oil pool on a 20 per cent royalty, the successful bidder being the one who will pay the highest cash bonus.

Welsh said if his bill is passed and signed by the governor it will automatically repeal the Olson oil bill.

Postal Telegraph Rates Reduced

NUISANCE TAX EXTENSION SOUGHT

Doughton Offers Bill To Continue Plan For Two Years

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Chairman Doughton (D., N. C.) of the house ways and means committee has introduced an administration bill to extend for two years the so-called nuisance taxes.

Doughton said the committee would not hold hearings on the measure and would approve it before the end of the month. The taxes will expire at the end of June unless they are renewed.

The administration estimates the taxes, if continued, will raise $452,580,000 in the next fiscal year. The taxes are on items such as automobiles and trucks, gasoline, lubricating oils, radios, phonographs, mechanical refrigerators, chewing gum and communications facilities.

SCOUTS AID DERELICTS

Boy Scouts in London have organized a flying squad to help down-and-outs. A dozen motorcars cover at night all slum districts, especially along the Thames, to help the hungry, the homeless or the helpless. The cars are packed with clothing, packages of food and vacuum flasks of hot tea and coffee.

from 5000 to 10,000 cheering delegates to the convention. A lot of oratorical fireworks which lifts 10,000 or more Townsendites won't have much influence on congress. What is needed is the opinion of this writer is a real business type of convention in which ways and means of organizing the congressional districts of the nation which as yet are not even scratched for the Townsend plan. True, we want some enthusiasm along with the convention—want some shouting and even some hullabaloo, but more still we want and need some good hard-headed business sense grafted into the convention. A program should be mapped out which by election time in 1938 would find us in possession of sufficient power to send another 100 or more congressmen to Washington who will be ready for the Townsend plan.

Those who oppose the enactment of the Townsend plan into law do not depend on haphazard methods to hold it in subjection. They organize their forces with the purpose of preventing its enactment. As an illustration they whip into existence a gag-rule which makes it almost impossible to even get a hearing for our bill before the congress. The gag-rule didn't just happen to happen. It was preconceived and purposely made a part of the procedure of the congress with the purpose in view of preventing hearings being given for just such contemplated legislation as ours.

Naturally a Townsend national convention calls for delegates being selected by the Townsend clubs, including ones from the clubs of this county. The kind of convention we will have will depend to a considerable degree upon the kind of delegates being given for just such contemplated legislation as ours.

It's time for the Townsendites to do a bit of organizing themselves by way of reprisal toward all those who supported such rules of procedure. They are not democratic, as every one knows. But they are, right now, giving us our trouble in congress and will likely so continue to do. Let's have a convention this time which will do something about fundamental things. The way to do it, is to send the right kind of delegates to the national convention.

Sleeping on Feather Pillow Affects Boy's Appetite

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—The doctors studied a curious case of digestive disorder today—the malevolent effect of a feather pillow on a small boy's appetite. It was presented to the 61st annual convention of the California State Homeopathic Medical Society recently in a paper by Dr. Louis Nuyens, of San Francisco. Dr. Nuyens was reporting on instances of allergy, the mysterious sensitiveness, of some persons, to substances which are generally common and harmless.

"One 12-year-old boy," the physician reported, "was found to be sensitive to lamb, veal, beef, mutton, pork and fowl. All these meats made him violently ill."

The boy slept on a feather pillow. When it was removed, Dr. Nuyens said, "there was a considerable abatement of all his other symptoms." A complete cure was then effected, he continued, through medical treatment, and removal of the patient's tonsils.

EXTRAS SHREWD KING IS OUT TO IN SOUTH SEA 'GET THE BANK'

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—South sea natives are shrewder bargainers than Hollywood extras when a motion picture company hoves into view.

Mrs. Dorothy Reid, widow of Wallace Reid, just returned from filming backgrounds in Tutuila, Samoa, says sophistication has entered that island paradise.

Tribal beauties demand $8 a day and all meals, for acting, Mrs. Reid learned. Chiefs must be paid extra if they wear decorations.

And all the natives insist—yes, insist—on being clothed before the camera.

NO PENALTIES FOR RELIEF CHISELERS

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—Recipients of state relief should not be penalized by cash deductions because they may have made false claims in the past, the state attorney general's office holds.

An opinion signed by Attorney General U. S. Webb frowned on a "restitution account" established by the state controller's office in an effort to recover some of the money paid out improperly.

The opinion written at the request of Harold E. Pomeroy, state relief administrator here, pointed out that present laws provide punishment for such misdemeanors. "It would seem a bit harsh to cause the children and other dependents of such a person to suffer further hardships by reason of his prior conduct," the opinion said.

Under procedure established by the controller's office a small amount was deducted from each allotment to make up for past "chiseling."

GERMANS RUSH WORK ON ZEP

FRIEDRICH HAFEN, Germany's new lighter-than-air hope was being rushed into finished stages today to replace the Zeppelin Hindenburg, a charred and tragic wreck at Lakehurst.

The LZ-130, designed as a sister ship to the Hindenburg, had her metal skeleton nearly covered with fabric. Her pilot and motor gondolas, as well as the radio cabin, were almost finished. Work on passenger quarters was being speeded.

Indicative of Germany's tremendous interest, 30,000 visitors inspected the work in the last few days.

U. S. AGENTS SENT INTO KENTUCKY

Will Probe Terrorism
In Harlan County
Mine District

WASHINGTON (AP)—Attorney General Cummings announced he had ordered federal agents into Harlan county, Ky., scene of violent labor disputes, to determine whether workers there have been intimidated in violation of the national labor relations act.

"I'm a meat-and-potatoes girl," she said. "I hate all the preliminaries and like to get down to the fundamentals right away."

Which indicates that Gypsy, here for a movie, does not approve of the stripe-tease technique when it comes to food. She became accustomed to all-on-one-plate meals back in New York, where she was a busy girl.

Gypsy's introduction to the local press at one of these informal luncheons, savored of the burlesque halls only its preponderantly masculine audience. Several ladies of the press were invited, but only one showed. The others missed a chance to meet a pretty, level-headed gal who knows what she's doing and has most of Hollywood's cuties backed off the board for the gift of gab.

One of the Gang

Some of us expected a little Park avenue talk and were pleasantly disappointed. Gypsy was a little burned because three reporters who met her train had written that she sported an "English accent." The majority vote at the luncheon was consoling. Besides when a girl says it was publicity and more publicity that put her over, you know right away that she's one of the gang.

Gypsy's rise to fame from the burlesque temples of New York has been recounted too much to excise further detailing. But her film venture is really a homecoming. As tiny tykes, she and her sister did three or four films in the silent days. They also appeared in some Sid Grauman prologues in days before his Chinese theater became the showhouse.

After that it was show business, and more of the same, right up to the time the girl became famous. There have been so many versions of her espousal of strip-teasing that she can't remember them all.

Wants Dramatic Role

But Gypsy—20th Century— are equally desirous now that the burlesque business be forgotten. She comes to a movie role, in "You Can't Have Everything," to which no cigar-smoke aroma clings. She is to play a retired show girl, a regular acting part, and Mr. Breen of the Hays office won't need to worry about that specialty of hers.

She says she has her heart set on a straight dramatic role in the theater come September when she reports to the Shuberts for a show. She has her doubts that she'll be able to talk the Shuberts into it, but she'll try.

Someone asked if she were all through with burlesque.

"I don't dare say yes to that, she replied candidly. "I've been through with it three times already. You know how it is. You leave 14th street for a big show, and the show doesn't last, and pretty soon you're back. It's tough, going back, but I've done it three times and I can't say I won't again."

Lathrop Jr. High News

A picnic at Irvine park Friday night was an end-of-the-year activity for Mrs. Grace Wolff's and Mrs. Marguerite Hill's literature classes. With several parents acting in the transportation committee, the class arrived in time for games before time for the picnic supper, which was enjoyed by all.

On Friday, May 21st, the Junior Literary club plans a last party at the home of Lela Slaback, one of its members. Games and refreshments will be planned by a committee appointed by the president, Ruth Ames.

At Orange, last Saturday, 12 Lathrop seventh graders presented a play for the Red Cross International Good Will celebration at the Orange Woman's club. The play, called "Mother Earth's children," was directed and coached by Mrs. Marguerite Hill, and Miss Pearl Nicholson of Lathrop. Students who took part in the program were Mabel Henderson, Helen Hawkins, Roger Howell, Paul Aubrey, Gordon Heath, Edna Reguarrth, Alfred Haigh, Donna Lundah, Jean McWilliams, Marman Lee and Marilyn Munsell. Merlin Johnson was the announcer and stage director. Mr. Nelson, Lathrop's principal, also attended the meeting.

Lathrop students who had tickets were excused Thursday afternoon for the matinee performance of "Naughty Marietta," the junior college operetta.

With the end of the spring semester drawing to a close, Lathropites are thinking about who will be next year's officers. Members of the high eighth class, who will be low nines next year, were asked to confer with Mr. Scott on Tuesday.

A caucus consisting of two members from each home room, was held in room 32 on Wednesday.

The following students are those chosen for the caucus: Seventh grade, Marguerite Alvord, Paul Aguilar, Floye Caudell, Billy Chapman, Wallace Friend, Norma Flint, Gordon Heath, Julia Green, Norman Lee, Eleanor Lawrence, Robin Maynard, Richard MacFarlane, Richard Miles, Gloria Miodock, Andronickie Pappas, George Roussos, Katherine Stockton, Dick Shafer, Lenore Walker, Dean Whitmore.

Eighth grade: Jo Adams, Jimmy Bach, Phyllis Deegan, Randolph Clark, Bill Culley, Betty Gowdy, Lily McDonald, Kenneth Lindahl, Don Metz, Walter MacFarlane, Bonnie Lee Martin, Ruth Murphy, Consuela Rodriguez, Jack Sumner, James Wylie, Margaret Thompson, Rose Ann Griggs, Bill Jones.

Ninth grade: Frances Brando, Charles Borchard, Geo. Detweller, Doris Fowler, Jack Gentry, Joyce Hubbard, June Masin, Rosemary Pearce, Jack Miles, Jack Phillipa, Joe Ryan, Mary Alice Tillotson, Leonard Wilber, Archalene Winter.

Mixed doubles in tennis matches were played Tuesday after school by Lloyd Schultz, Phyllis Wetherall, Don Yoder, Bonnie Lee Martin, Robert Wahlberg, Grace Holmes, Clifford Whitford and Don Nelson.

Results of the Lathrop posture contest showed Jean McWilliams winning first place in the seventh grade and Mitsuho Ochi in the ninth. Second place was won by Niva Lundok, seventh grade; Mary Lio, eighth grade, and Gertrude Knox, ninth grade.

Lathrop badminton players have two unbaten teams, consisting of Soren Sorenson and Corine Wendorff, and Douglass May and Irma Jean May.

Social studies classes, under Miss Lila Thrasher's direction, have been preparing notebooks on Italy, England, Scotland and France. Outstanding work was done by Bill Was, whose subject was France, Shirley Wolven, who chose England for her subject, and George Detwiler, whose notebook dealt with Italy. Ralph Tippins had collected most interesting material on Scotland.

For the Lathrop-Willard tennis tournament the final game was played at Willard after school Monday. Merle Davis, from Lathrop, played Marorie Mize from Willard. Marjorie defeated Merle 6-2; 6-3.

Finals are as follows: Betty Courtney, toe-tap dancer; Yosh Chinese tap dancer; Ruth Fend, impersonator; Bobbie and Jackie, roller skaters; Willard Bassett, singer; the Evans Boys, sailor skit; Katherine Harper and Harold Root, song and dance routine; Lorle Bell, comedy dancer; Jean Baldwin, singer; and Evelyn Sutton, acrobatic dancer, plus the two winners of tonight's show.

On the screen tonight will be seen "The Great O'Malley" starring Pat O'Brien, and "Time Out for Romance" with Claire Trevor and Michael Whalen.

SENATE ASKS HOLC DATA IN STATE

Information Asked By McAdoo Following Many Complaints

WASHINGTON. (AP)—The senate, at the request of Senator McAdoo (D., Calif.) has called upon the home loan board to furnish detailed information on the operation of the Home Owners' Loan corporation in California.

McAdoo told the senate he had received many complaints about operation of the corporation in his state, but had not been able to get the information for dealing with them.

At his request the senate unanimously agreed to a resolution calling upon the chairman of the board to furnish the following information: The total number of home mortgages by the HOLC in California during the fiscal years 1934, 1935 and 1936; the total number of the mortgages; the total number of defaults; the total number of foreclosures and the money involved.

The total number of homes acquired by the HOLC, the amount of the loans on them, and the amount paid by the corporation; the total number of such homes re-sold and the amount realized; the name, address, position and salary of all officers and employees of the corporation in the state.

POPE PLANS NEW NAZI ATTACK

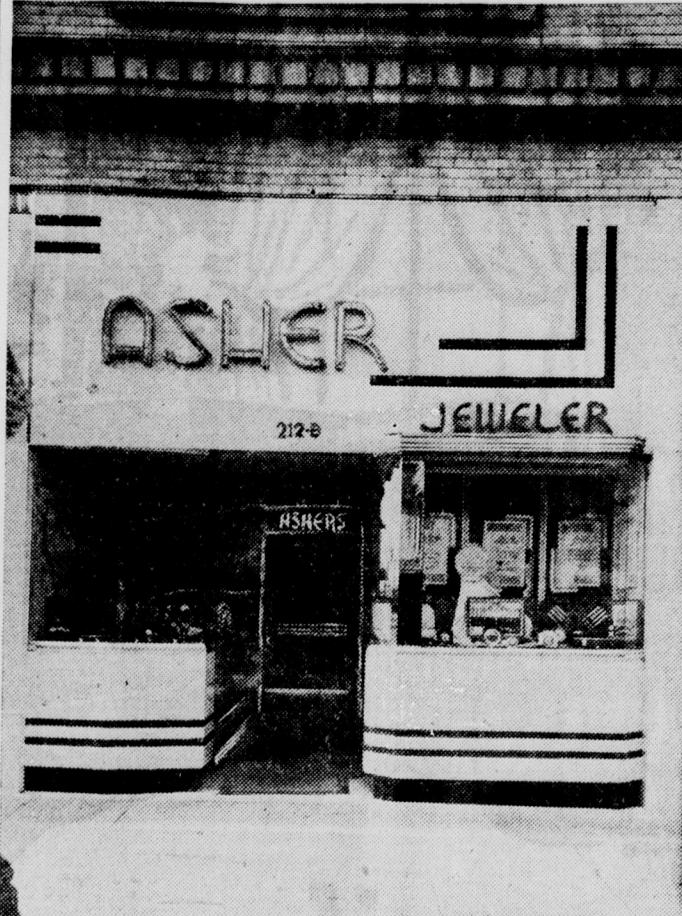

VATICAN CITY. (AP)—Pope Pius XI has completed and may publish any day a White Book against the German government, prelates said today.

The diplomatic paper has been in preparation for several months, they asserted, and is designed to give documentary evidence that any violation of the Vatican-German concordat was on the part of Chancellor Adolf Hitler's regime and not of the Holy See. (The concordat was signed July 8, 1933.) Church spokesmen since have charged that the Nazi government abridged the concordat by attempting to deny the church the privilege of religious training for Catholic youth.

Man Asks to Prosecute Self On Charge of Speeding

MORE BY PEGLER

SEATTLE (AP)—Ellery I. Doxy appeared in police court yesterday and asked permission to prosecute himself on a charge of speeding 40 miles an hour.

"You cannot do that," said City Attorney Bruce MacDougall. "You can plead guilty."

"Well, I'm in this position," Doxy said. "I'm a member of the Madison Park Business Men's club which has gone on record against Madison street speeders. In fact I seconded the motion which got the police department to send us a patrolman to check speeding. And he got me!"

"The cop was right and all I can say is that I have my drivers' license revoked and be forced to sell by automobile."

Judge William R. Bell said he'd never heard anything like it before and fined Doxy $5.

containing several million quarts of spirits. The fire spread to neighboring factories and the municipal slaughter house.

JEWELER TO BE IN NEW QUARTERS

The Asher Jewelry company, 212 West Fourth street, today invited the Orange county public to the formal opening of its modernized store, which will take place tomorrow.

The new store is completely modernistic, both in its front and its interior, which will facilitate display of stock.

Several new features have been installed by A. Asher, owner, to aid in giving improved service to customers. Among these are a new optical department, a diamond room designed to aid customers in choosing blue-white stones, a new indirect lighting system, and a separate room for watch repairing by experts.

Nationally-advertised watches, jewelry, accessories and optical goods are housed in the new store.

The completely remodeled store front harmonizes with the display windows of plate glass and red ivory used by the store next door.

Asher has been in business for 17 years at his former location, 210 West Fourth street. The new location is two doors west.

The store is in the building owned by W. H. Spangler, Jr. The architect for the remodeling was Fay R. Spangler. Mirrors were furnished by the Eureka Paint and Glass store. Electric work was done by the McFarland Electric company.

VALLEY IS S. C. MARKET SPOT

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—The latest reports of business markets by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce shows the San Joaquin valley to be one of the major markets for Southern California products.

Harold W. Wright, manager of the domestic trade department, says in the survey of Southern California sales managers that the San Joaquin valley "exceeds each of the following states in population: Arizona, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming."

The physician said he had not yet learned the cause of the epidemic, but it may have been a county sanitation engineer was dispatched to the mountain resort to investigate.

The patients were listed as Mrs. Ann Coleman, E. C. Lowry, Leon Schueffner, Douglas Moynie, Mrs. Minnie McFadden, Thomas R. Storey, Mrs. Laura Storey, Gene Marlow, C. L. Edwards, I. Disen, L. W. Morris, C. S. Hagwood, S. B. Terry, Z. R. Johnson, Don Beaton, L. E. McBatters and Harold Gravette.

The annual volume of retail trade in the San Joaquin totals $230,000,000, an increase of $88,000,000, or 62 per cent, since 1933.

"Market analysts," says Wright, "speak all to glibly about population and consumers without consideration of what population means in terms of commodity requirements."

"Consider the importance of a market such as the San Joaquin valley with its 146,700 families using electricity. Eighty per cent of these families do not have electric refrigerators. Thus there is a potential sale for 117,560 electric refrigerators."

"It is interesting to note also that 4840 families in the valley do not have bathtubs or showers. These averages do not indicate low standards of living, but merely that even in modern progressive areas there are still tremendous potential commodity markets."

And furthermore, nobody kicked any of them to see if they would move so it is impossible to apply the army standard. The lights were turned off from time to time and a recess was taken while a number of members formed an escort to conduct a distinguished colleague to the train for New York. And finally, in the confusion, the school appropriation bill indefinitely was mislaid somewhere between the senate and the house, a curious occurrence indeed, in a body of statesmen with nothing to do but stay awake andumble, "aye."

Reliable informants state that the standards of the Delaware highway police, which are much more fastidious than the old formula of the man clutching the grass to hang on to the ground, might have caught some of the statesmen on closing night. The difficulty there, however, is that while a man in a certain condition may be considered unfit to drive a car, there is no similar limitation in any American legislature, including the national congress.

'Statesman's Right'

Although legislation is a dangerous device in the hands of the incoherent, a statesman's right to legislate cannot be challenged even though he be drunk, by the old Delaware or the old army standard, a fact which may explain some of the peculiar laws handed down at each session of the law-making bodies.

As to the confusion of closing night, the legislature has offered no credible explanation. An official of the senate insists that the appropriation bill was delivered to the house and that a receipt was taken. The members of the lower house, however, had no recollection of voting it through and with the utmost respect for the powers of confusion common to all legislative bodies, it is hard to understand how a house of only 35 members, could be so thoroughly confused without artificial assistance. And now the unfortunate mishap has caused personal ill-will in the senate toward the house because the entire legislature was called back at the members' own expense and without pay to correct the oversight.

Embittered Men

The Republican majority in the senate bitterly resented this and clamored to be paid but were voted down and went away from Dover embittered men.

Another definition of drunkenness comes from an old English case against a bishop whose winning witness said, "nobody who was drunk could slide down three sets of bannisters in all those robes as his grace did."

But there again your correspondent is unable to apply the test for none of the statesmen slid down any bannisters. It would not be fair to assume that any of them didn't because they could not."

SAN BERNARDINO. (AP)—Seventeen residents and vacationists from Lake Arrowhead were confined in St. Bernardino hospital today for treatment of what may be food poisoning.

GRAND CENTRAL MARKET BIRTHDAY SALE BEGINS ON SATURDAY

FIFTEEN YEARS' SERVICE TO BE CELEBRATED

All Merchants in Huge Building Will Join in Presenting Attractive Offerings During Anniversary Event

A gala week at the Grand Central Market, predicated on the observance of the fifteenth anniversary of this great food center, will begin Saturday, May 22, and continue throughout the following week, according to an announcement made today by Geo. H. Boardman, property organization manager. This extraordinary event will be participated by the merchants in the Grand Central, who will offer not only bargains, but many of them super-specials during the anniversary celebration.

Blue and gold pennants will be used in the decorative scheme throughout the vast market area, and a fiesta appearance will welcome the public.

And that isn't all. Charley Eaton has prepared for Grand Central merchants 1800 individual cup cakes which will be given away, one to a customer, from a booth located in the northwest aisle adjacent to the Donut shop. And the Grand Central merchants are not going to forget the kiddies, as each one will get a candy gift.

The anniversary of 15 years of continuous food market service in this great Orange county business institution is deemed a fitting time not only to thank the buying public or its patronage, but to assure a continuation of the appreciation, and a determination upon the part of all the tenants to strive for further approval.

So that you may find the super-specials available during anniversary week consult the Grand Central advertisements appearing in this issue.

Fifteen years of service to Santa Ana and Orange county citizens will be the theme for the Grand Central market's anniversary sale starting Saturday and lasting an entire week. The huge building houses more than 30 stores, shops and services, all of which will join in the gala week's celebration. The market is the largest on the Pacific coast for a city of this size.

BIG WELCOME PLANNED AT MARKET

The participating merchants in this great Grand Central Market fifteenth business anniversary have prepared a welcome for everyone and will be pleased to increase their acquaintance with the buying public, and renew the acquaintance of older friends.

This institution pioneered the food market business in Santa Ana. It is a home-owned organization, the individual businesses are home-owned, and there is a neighborly atmosphere throughout this great institution.

The fifteenth anniversary gives these merchants an opportunity to show their appreciation of Orange county's patronage, and they are doing so by offering not only bargains, but in some cases going beyond the bargain stage into the super-specials to show they are appreciative of public patronage.

As a neighborly gesture the A. N. Zerman Feed store, the C. J. Skirvin Tire service, the Collins garage, the Goodrich Silvertown stores and the Grand Central garage are carrying in this issue advertisements.

Robinson 'Talk' Invades Senate

WASHINGTON (AP)—Possibility of Senator Robinson (D., Ark.) being named to the supreme court was mentioned on the senate floor for the first time yesterday by Senator Clark (D., Mo.).

Clark, discussing a bill to extend the life of the Civilian Conservation Corps, referred to Robinson incidentally, remarking that "we all hope he will be transferred to another body." He said senators would be "sorry to lose" Robinson as leader.

Grand Central's Softball Nine Among Leaders

One of the leading teams in the Santa Ana City league is the Grand Central Market softball nine, which has gained the upper division in its first season of the amateur sport.

Larry Owens, who managed Joe's Grocery champions last year, is skipper of the new team, which is sponsored by all units of the Grand Central market.

"I tried to find what else was in Mr. Hoover's mind—perhaps something about the future of the Republican party," Dunninger said. "But there was nothing there—just nothing except the name 'Hulda'."

Hoover admitted he was thinking of the name, but declined to reveal her identity. Who's Who, however, shows that he is the son of Jesse Clark and Hulda Randall Hoover.

The former president, it was revealed, cleared his mind of all other thoughts when confronted by Joseph Dunninger, New York mentalist, at a dinner attended by Walter P. Chrysler, Major Bowes, Merlin H. Aylesworth and other prominent figures.

Hoover was thinking of the name, but declined to reveal her identity. Who's Who, however, shows that he is the son of Jesse Clark and Hulda Randall Hoover.

JON LINDBERGH GETS BEQUEST

JAPAN WARNED ABOUT SOVIET

TOKYO (AP)—Japan's army and navy ministers have warned 46 prefectural governors that Soviet Russia has "positive war plans" in the Orient.

Admiral Mitsumasa Yonai, the naval minister, told the governors that "not a day must be lost in strengthening our navy from this danger."

The minister of war, Lieut. Gen. Sugiyama, asserted that recent alleged Trotskyist activities in Russia, disclosed in testimony at two treason trials, did not affect the solidity of the Moscow regime.

He said the Soviets' progress in war preparations indicates that a movement of a positive nature is planned in the Far East.

The bequest was by the late General Jay J. Morrow, a former governor of the Panama Canal Zone, whose will was filed for probate. He died a month ago.

General Morrow wrote the links and studs were left by his brother, the late Senator Dwight W. Morrow, to his daughter, the late Elisabeth Morrow Morgan, who in turn left them to him.

"I wish to preserve them for little Jon Lindbergh," he wrote, "but they might in the meantime be used by Dwight W. Morrow, Jr."

American League Chase Mystifies Critics

PHILADELPHIA NOW SECOND TO INDIANS

4 1/2 Games Separate
Leaders From Cellar-
Stationed Browns

By SID FEDER

Associated Press Sports Writer

The whole thing doesn't make as much sense as an insane asylum, but the figures show the American league is off to a closer and more completely unlooked for start than it has been in years. By the end of the first month last year, five games separated first and fourth place. This season, the race was regarded as New York, Detroit, Cleveland and nothing much. But so far it's been as tight as mustard plaster—so close in fact, that only 4 1/2 games separate the leaders of the moment, Cleveland's Indians, from the cellar-riding St. Louis Browns.

Athletics in Second

And most astonishing of all is that the longest of the long shots, Connie Mack's mystifying Athletics, are in second place, leading both the Yankees and the Tigers. They were on top until yesterday, but the Indians licked the tar out of the Boston Red Sox, 16-5, while the A's dropped a 3-2 decision to the Tigers, which gave the Tribe the pace by a percentage margin.

Spinning the sports wheel: Bob Jeffery, Riverside's clowning first baseman in nightball, is the good-looking youngster who had a trial with the Pittsburgh Pirates this spring. They wanted to "season" him on a Class D farm in the east, but Jeffery turned down the offer. Too far away from home, it seems. They have turned on the lights for night golf at the San Bernardino Country club. There are two Stones and a Rock on the Colton softball nine that plays Santa Ana at the Municipal bowl tonight.

Stewart Sinclair of Riverside, the Eastern J. C. conference's No. 1 distance runner, will take one last fling at faster company to-night, competing in the 5000 meters with the Olympic stars, Norman Bright and Louie Zamperini, at the Compton Invitational relays. The Hi-Hatters, Santa Ana's motorcycle and automobile racing club, whose members spent last week-end at Murco dry lakes, are planning a near-future trip to Lake Arrowhead. The club is a social one, comprised of young men who are interested in all kinds of racing.

Ward Wins on Rivals' Collision

Partida and Ortega Meet Head-On in 7th; Young Scores Winning Run

SANTA ANA CITY LEAGUE
Carpenters 2 1 .667
Elks Lodge 2 1 .667
Montgomery Ward 2 1 .667
Commercial Natl. Bank 2 1 .667
Montgomery Ward 2 2 .500

Results Last Night
South, 4; Montgomery Ward, 5; Grand Central Market, 4.

Two over-anxious heads collided, out went two players, and the winning run came in for the Montgomery Ward players as they defeated the Grand Central Market, 5-4, at the Municipal bowl last night. The Commercial National bank won over M. E. South, 9-4, in the first game, creating a four-way tie for the lead among the Elks, Carpenters, Wards and the Commercial.

Pete Partida, Grand Central shortstop, first caught Maurice Young's short fly into center field in the seventh, only to have Joe Ortega meet him head on coming in from center. Pete dropped the ball and Young scored the winning run. Both lay flat on their backs, but regained consciousness after a couple of minutes. Except for minor bruises, neither felt any ill effects from the collision.

Hanson struck out nine batters and Jordan four, each shutting out their opponents for six innings. The Market first drew blood in the first of the sixth, when they scored to drive in.

"That way," replied the home boys pointing. "So the Marquette's drove 'that way' quite well.... Imagine how they felt when the locals set up and headed in the opposite direction.... Marquette's golfers took 8's and 9's on the hole, while the home boys holed out in 4's."

Correction: Stan Bordagaray of the Cardinals, and not Wally Berger of the Bees, is the out-fielder the Giants are dictating for.... (But the fistfights the other day may have delayed the deal).... Benny Huffman, now catching regularly for the Browns, was behind the plate for Bridgewater college, a small institution of only 250 students, a year ago.... How's that for leapin'.... Can it be true that Al Weil intends to turn down a guarantee of $50,000 for Lou Amber to defend his lightweight crown against Pedro Montanez?.... Quick, Watson, a shot!"

One major league manager who doesn't grow old is Jimmy Dugan of the White Sox.... Lou Brix is on the way to Detroit with the bantamweight champ, Sixto Escobar, to close for a title shot against K. O. Morgan under Jack Kearns' auspices.... Sixto will take the bout if they can agree on a date before July 15.... Otherwise he is going to London to fight Peter Kene for a $15,000 guarantee.... Have you bought your ticket to the Bradock-Schmeing fight yet?.... Officially, President Ford Frick had to step on a fine or two for the hot in St. Louis.... Privately and confidentially, he probably wished he had been on hand to see it and report it for the papers as he used to do before he became an exec.

RANCHERS IN HUGE DRIVE ON COYOTES

Wyoming Men Plan to Slay Animals That Kill Livestock

LANDER, Wyo. (AP)—Thousands of coyotes retreated into their dens to day to escape the shotgun fire and clubs of ranchers enraged by their raids on livestock.

Already 8000 of the wild animals have been killed, and, as one gunning rancher said, "that's only a beginning."

"We've got to get 10,000 of 'em in Fremont county alone if we expect to save our livestock," he added.

Kill Hundreds of Head

The ranchers roughly estimated that hundreds of head of livestock were killed by the coyotes.

Depredations have been especially heavy among sheep and lambs, which become panic-stricken when the killers appear in the flocks. Calves also are prey.

The large number of the predators increased their bravado this spring.

Dogs Lead Hunters

In the campaign of extermination the ranchers arm themselves with clubs as well as guns, and deploy in groups. Dogs pick up the scent and lead the hunters to the dens in rocky, mountainous country overlooking grazing land. A $3 bounty adds incentive to the drive. Paid hunters of the U. S. Biological Survey have aided the stock growers.

U. S. and German Scientists Get Franklin Medal

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An American and a German have received the Franklin medal for contributions in physical science and technology.

They are Dr. Robert Andrew Millikan, chairman of the executive council of the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena, and Dr. Peter Joseph Wilhelm Debye, director of the Kaiser Wilhelm Institute of Physics at Berlin, Germany.

The Franklin Institute announced that the medal was awarded to Dr. Millikan for his isolation and measurement of the electron. The award to Dr. Debye was in recognition of his research on the electrical properties of insulators.

The Franklin fund was established in 1914 by Samuel Insull.

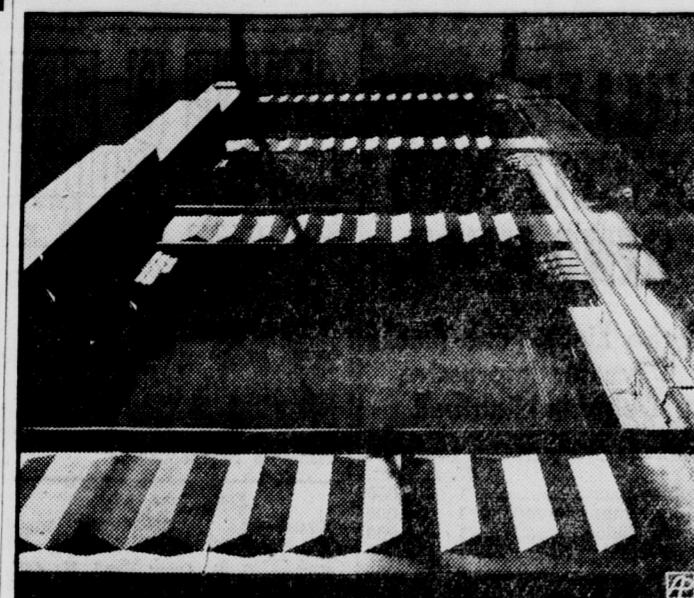

Report Alfonso Breaks With Son

ROME (AP)—Former King Alfonso of Spain was reported recently to have split with his oldest son, the Count of Covadonga, because he heard that the count had retracted his renunciation of claim to the Spanish succession and has announced his intention of marrying again.

Count Covadonga was divorced this month from Edelmina Sampedro, the Cuban commoner for whom he forfeited his royal rights.

Discovery of fluor spar, 98 per cent pure, has been reported in the Chiriqui mountains in the Big Bend section of Texas.

Hard Cider in N. Y. Is Illegal

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—New York state farmers may make hard cider, but they mustn't sell it because cider isn't a "legal beverage" under the state alcoholic beverage control law. Attorney General John J. Bennett, Jr., has so ruled, saying hard cider does not fall within the legal definition of liquor, wine and beer, and thus cannot be sold legally in the state either at retail or wholesale.

M'REYNOLDS TO BE DEAN OF COURT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Justice James Clark McReynolds, who pleaded recently for "good sportsmanship" by those who lose in court, will become dean of the supreme court when Justice Van Devanter retires next month.

McReynolds, a bachelor, was President Wilson's attorney general when appointed to the court in 1914.

Outranking him in age is Justice Brandeis, 80, who was appointed by President Wilson in 1916. Chief Justice Hughes and Justice Sutherland, like McReynolds, are 75.

Retirement of Justice Van Devanter raises the possibility of seven to seven decisions by the court, if the Roosevelt reorganization bill becomes law as it stands.

It proposes to authorize appointment of an additional justice for each justice over 70% who does not retire. This would have meant a court of 15 if none of the six members affected, including Van Devanter, retired.

In event of a tie decision on questions of constitutionality, the law at issue stands.

Capone's Brother Is Near Death

CHICAGO (AP)—Matthew Capone, 29, younger brother of Al, America's first "public enemy No. 1," was near death in a hospital today from a skull fracture suffered in an automobile accident in suburban Cicero.

Police said Capone lost control of his car last night when a rear tire blew out.

Al Capone is serving a 10-year sentence in the Alcatraz island penitentiary for violation of the income tax laws.

Momentous Muddle Arises Over Supreme Court Seats As Van Devanter Retires

BY EDDIE GILMORE

WASHINGTON (AP)—A momentous seating muddle developed in the $10,000,000 supreme court building today—where's going to sit where in the next term?

Here's the situation with all its architectural angles:

1. If congress should enact the president's court bill with no alterations, the whole place will have to be overhauled to make room for five new justices.

2. If the lawmakers whittle down the proposed additions or reject them, the question arises of getting a new chair for Justice Van Devanter's successor, because retiring justices always take their chairs with them.

3. Everybody's chair but Chief Justice Hughes' has to be shuffled.

McReynolds at Right

The oldest associate justice in point of service always sits on the chief's right. Inasmuch as this is the spot Justice Van Devanter is vacating, Justice McReynolds will move in.

After all the chairs have been moved comes the job of what kind of a chair to get. Each justice picks his own style.

Assistant Attorney General Robert H. Jackson's broad shoulders would demand a broad-backed chair.

DRUGS RING BROKEN UP BY GIRL

U. S. Narcotics Officer Arrested in Reno With 8 Others

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—The San Francisco Examiner said today in a copyrighted story brilliant detective work by Joyce McAllister, Santa Barbara girl, resulted in the arrest of Chris Hansen, federal narcotics agent in charge of the Nevada district, as the purported leader of a "dope ring."

Hansen, the newspaper said, was arrested on a federal warrant last night at Reno, charged with conspiracy to violate the narcotics law. Woon Sing, a Chinese, six other Chinese and A. V. McAvoy, were arrested in a series of raids by federal agents and Washoe county officers.

The paper said Hansen was charged with conspiring with Sing, McAvoy and others to carry large scale retail traffic in narcotics. Under Hansen's purported protection, it was charged, Woon Sing assertedly made his Public club on Lake street in Reno a central depot for extensive narcotics operations.

The newspaper said the raids followed a purchase of $195 worth of morphine by Miss McAllister at the Public club.

Charles Legruen rushed up to a baker's cart in Paris, France, grabbed a pie and ran like a hare. The baker raced after him, but was losing ground when he heard someone calling "Taxi?" It was a good suggestion. He leaped into the taxicab and a few minutes later was able to turn over the fugitive to the police.

Woman Does Cancer Research

By SID COPELAND

American Wire Correspondent Few women have won themselves a place in our history books. The pages are dominated by men. The reason for this is simple. Men dominated the world. A woman's place was in the home. Moreover, our histories were written about war. Soldiers became heroes. For this reason Joan of Arc is one of the few historical women characters.

As the world learns to scorn war, it will regard scientists as its modern heroes.

And at least one woman has earned her place as a heroine of the modern age. She is Dr. Maud Slye, University of Chicago pathologist and American Medical association gold medalist.

Her battle against cancer is more thrilling than any of Caesar's campaigns. Instead of attempting to slaughter millions, her aim is to prolong the life of the average human being.

Poor Parents

Maud Slye was born in Minneapolis of poor parents. For three years she worked her way through the University of Chicago by doing secretarial work after classes. The hard work brought on a nervous breakdown and she was forced to quit school to recuperate.

She finally took her degree at Brown University in Massachusetts. For six years after graduation she taught psychology at Rhode Island State Normal school. There she developed an interest in the question of heredity. Financed by a small grant from the University of Chicago, she set out to investigate.

She bought a half-dozen Japanese dancing mice for $6 and studied their nervous disorders. She kept elaborate hereditary charts of these mice. Finally, she decided to devote her life to the study of cancer.

FIGHT ON LABOR BILL STILL ON

SACRAMENTO. (AP)—Organized labor's battle to obtain enactment of protective legislation continued today along three fronts in the senate and assembly.

Meanwhile, weary lawmakers reconvened this morning in a determined effort to clear the congested files of hundreds of proposed laws, which face legislative oblivion unless acted upon before the solons officially quit their respective calenders tonight.

Stamped with an assembly "O.K." the Cronin anti-injunction measure moved today to the senate for consideration. The measure is designed to prohibit the issuance of injunctions by courts to curb pickets.

The prolonged fight of organized labor to enact legislation prohibiting the use of state highway patrolmen in strike zones today stood defeated, following refusal of the assembly to approve the Hunt-Rosenthal bill. Under the bill, the transfer of highway patrolmen into counties where a strike was in progress would have been prohibited.

Speaker William Moseley Jones took the floor in the assembly and after a prolonged debate secured passage of his resolution to appoint to interim investigating committees and a coordinating group which he will head.

The assembly's clock was to be stopped this afternoon at 5 o'clock to allow consideration of all assembly bills before the end of the period in which they can be acted upon. A joint resolution provides for adjournment sine die next Friday at that hour.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film studio, better condition. It was estimated approximately 20 senate measures were left for consideration.

European Nations Seeking Armistice in Spanish War

NO OBJECTION TO PLAN IS VOICED

Germany and Italy Are Ready to Join Move
For End of Strife

LONDON. (AP)—Proposals for an armistice in the Spanish Civil war and for the withdrawal of foreign volunteers moved towards actuality today with authoritative assurances that no European power outside Spain will object.

Germany and Italy were said authoritatively to have been the greatest stumbling blocks to the twin plans for restoring peace in embattled Spain, but well-informed diplomatic personages said both now would join general discussions.

The British government, through its own ambassadors, has been seeking to learn the attitude of foreign nations on the armistice for some time. It was reliably disclosed that they have encountered no refusals for active consideration of the plan.

A special technical committee of the 27-nation "hands off Spain" group discussed the possibility of withdrawals of foreign troops from the civil war today and pressed the delegates to obtain their government's flat approval of an armistice.

The Spanish government's efforts to bring the civil war before the League of Nations, meanwhile, were received coolly in Whitehall. Informed quarters contended that an armistice before the league convenes would prevent serious consideration of the Spanish demands at Geneva.

(The League of Nations council assembly will meet next week.)

A CANDID TALK

JOSEPH P. KENNEDY Tackles The 'Lousiest Job' In Washington

Just as speed gauged success on the ocean then, so speed must tell the tale today, he believes, if the United States is going to compete with other powers for ocean trade and assure herself of a merchant fleet in the event of war in other parts of the world.

"With that in mind we'll let a contract for a new ocean liner to replace the old Leviathan in the Atlantic trade." And if Kennedy makes a go of his new job he'll be F.D.R.'s ace administrator. What are the chances? "Check me again in a year or so," he says.

BELIEVE PLANE LOST FOREVER

SALT LAKE CITY. (AP)—The possibility was discussed today that an airplane which vanished six months ago with seven persons may never be found, though thousands search.

"The wreckage may lie in some hidden arroyo in Utah's mountain wilds under five feet of snow," said an air veteran who preferred to remain anonymous.

The comment, echoed by some others, came as plans went forward for a renewed hunt for the Western Air Express transport and the five men and two women who went down with it last Dec. 15.

"In a few weeks," the veteran added, "snow will melt rapidly, canyons will fill with rushing streams and the debris may be swept down, scattered for miles and finally buried under rock and silt."

Still, hundreds of candidates for a $1000 reward posted by Western Air are resuming the search largely suspended amid late December snowstorms. Moreover an organized hunt will be taken up again soon.

Europe, Hawaii, Mexico, Alaska, and United States Beckon Santa Ana Travelers

Society Folk Depart On Travels

All Corners Of Globe Will Be Visited By Local Vacationers

Exodus of prominent Santa Anans on vacation trips, tours of foreign countries, and travels throughout the United States has reached astonishing proportions. In addition to the many folk who departed early in the month to be gone over considerable periods of time, many others trekked off today, and still others have made their plans for departure within the near future.

This morning saw Mr. and Mrs. Dean Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hall leave northward bound. They planned to drive into Canada, and embark from Victoria for Alaska, being gone more than a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Emison drove eastward, heading first for Detroit to pick up a new car, thence to New York for a week or two, and finally will wind up at De Pauw University in Indiana to attend a class reunion which will be held there June 11-14. Both the Emisons were graduated from the Indiana college, where he was affiliated with Phi Psi, and she with Kappa Kappa Gamma. Their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, is attending school there now, and was recently initiated into her mother's sorority. She will return to Santa Ana with her parents for the summer.

Other eastern travelers include the Asa Hoffmans and the Frank Hoffmans, who will be gone several weeks, and Mrs. Brad Hollis who will leave soon to visit her family in the south.

Mrs. Howard Rapp and Mrs. R. G. Tuthill both will go east by train next week to visit friends and relatives in and near Indiana. Mrs. Rapp will be joined when school is over by her daughter, Patty, who has been attending Indiana University, where she too is a Kappa, and Mrs. Tuthill will attend her daughter Martha's graduation exercises from St. Mary's college.

Airlines will take Mrs. Quentin Matzen a far as St. Louis after she leaves Santa Ana Sunday. She will join her husband there, and later continue to New York where she will visit her family for some time.

Miss Effie Douglas of Santa Ana is being widely feted before she leaves for a summer to be spent in Europe. After spending the last two weeks of June in New York with friends, she will sail aboard the Berengaria.

Honolulu-bound Santa Anans planning to embark in the next week are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ragan, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Peterson, and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hill. The latter two couples will celebrate wedding anniversaries aboard the Lurline, and Paul Ragan's birthday anniversary will give rise to a shipboard celebration on the same vessel.

A number of foreign travelers have booked passage for various European countries through the Commercial National bank travel bureau run by Julia Ann Hyde. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Haster and son, Richard, of Aradheim will sail May 23 on the Volendam for Holland, and Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph Callens of North Bristol street sail for Belgium on the S. S. Paris May 28.

Mrs. Marie Turley and Miss Marie Foldesi are embarking for Poland and Switzerland via the canal on May 23, and Mrs. C. H. Newkirk of Aradheim plans to join her husband, Dr. Newkirk, who is on a world cruise, in Naples next month.

Mrs. Elsie Kirk and Miss Elsie Stimson are leaving Sunday for a vacation in Mexico and the A. W. Rutans are planning a similar trip. Col. and Mrs. S. H. Finley,

In a season when color is the fashion watchword, this young mod varies the rule with a simple black crepe frock and felt pillbox hat. Her only accent is a chain bracelet centered with her initial in gold.

The Friday Afternoon

By DONALD BUTTON

Recommended for summer doing is a tour of the galleries in Los Angeles. Do it in a day, several days, but do it, for you're bound to find it fun!

Go first to the Museum in Exposition Park. If you've never been there, go through the whole place. Otherwise, take time out for the special exhibits.

Continuing until May 28th is the Robinea Ceramic Exhibit from Syracuse University. Prize-winner Glen Lukens' work is seen to best advantage in a flat, platinum-grey bowl.

Springing right from the earth, it seems, is Paul Bogatay's "Japanese Mother and Child." Fruit piled high upon the mother's head merely intensifies color found elsewhere in the group.

For comparison, there is Waylande Gregory's "Polo Players" in gun-metal grey and white and Viktor Schreckengost's more colorful treatment of the same subject.

And in another place Schreckengost amuses with a "Circus Group" in warm white with bands of red and yellow.

A life group by Jean Swiggett, a compelling portrait by Ruth Gustava are highlights in the Allied Arts Festival also at the Museum the rest of this month.

Go then from the Museum to the Library, see the Dean Cornwell murals in the lobby, the Charles Kasler's in the south patio.

Over on Sixth street Jake Zeitafter joining fellow Rotarians in Los Angeles next week will sail aboard the Duchess of Atholl on May 26, and plan to leave their fellow travelers in Nice and leisurely tour the continent.

The Roy Russells are cruising to Vancouver on the S. S. Canada and Mrs. Mary Harper of Balboa is going home to England—and many more are still to announce their completed plans for a summer of fun in foreign climes

The water-colors are diversion that is careful, colorful. They are recommended.

Worden Birthell brings paintings of the desert to William Menker's in Padua Hills for a two weeks showing.

Oils and pastels to be seen at Menker's are marked by strong blues. His clouds are fleecy-soft, his whole painting marked by accurate observation.

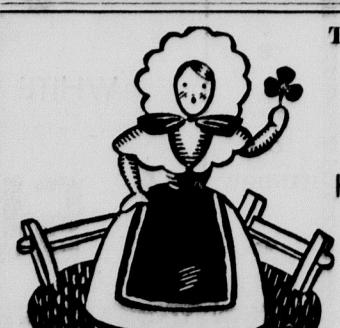

Surprise showing of the week! Padua.

HONORED QUEEN ENTERTAINS FOR OFFICERS

MISS Charlotte McCausland, who, on the first of June will conclude her term as honored queen of Job's Daughters, entertained her officers and advisors at a lovely party this week. A feature of the evening was the presentation of little girls to each of the girls who had served with her and to Mrs. William Dean and Frank Sawyer, advisors.

Bunco was played by the girls,

while their elders enjoyed a bridge session. Prizes for the former game went to Miss Virginia Bruns and Miss Margaret Abel, and for the latter to William Dean and Mrs. Hortense Rossetot.

Miss McCausland and her mother,

Mrs. B. F. McCausland, served a dainty refreshment course niversary today.

All lengths and styles in skirts, practically, Mrs. Garner has in-simply woven, others embroidered, but the idea of wrapping about four yards of woolen or cotton goods about one's middle, and then running the neck as tight as posible, is not my idea of fun in a warm weather. Especially, Guate-

Pegasus Club Elects New Officers

Pegasus club members drove to Glendale yesterday to have their final meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Lillian Geraghty, who served them delicious luncheon before their usual enjoyable afternoon of reading original compositions and criticizing them.

A special feature was the election of Mrs. Walter Foote to the presidency, Mrs. Malcolm Macurda to the vice-presidency and Mrs. Charles Brisco to the secretaryship for the coming year.

Subject for the day selected by Mrs. Charles Brisco was Thomas Jones' reflection: "Lo, blowing winds from out a midnight sky, the falling embers, and a kettle's croon, these three."

Several charming stories and poems were presented to the group by Mrs. Frank Lansdowne, Mrs. Bernice Thompson, Mrs. Justin Birtcher, Mrs. Rose Jackson, Mrs. Earl Morris, Mrs. Glenn Tidball, and Mrs. Fuller, and Mrs. Malcolm Macurda gave as her contribution two lovely songs, poems by Mrs. Frank. Was which she had set to music, and sang for the club.

Other members present were Mrs. Nelson Visel, Mrs. Rose Haidley, Mrs. Charles Brisco, and Mrs. Geraghty.

Can People Criticize Your Pronunciation?

I was so mortified when I didn't know how to say Riviera" says Mrs. Jim—who'd hoped to make a good impression at her new club.

Come, Mrs. Jim. You can easily make your new friends forget your blunders if you brush up on your pronunciation.

If you've said you love to read base Grafiz, want to see the RIVIERA, leave FINANCE to your husband, then this is an interesting time—next time be careful to say yoGrafitz for biographies, ReeveAYrah for Riviera, FINANCE, INTEResting, EEra.

People will know you as a person of culture if you're careful to speak of the Nazi as NAHtise, not NAZZI; of aviation as AViayshun, not AViayshun; of pronounces meEFERZE, not MoSOS; menu is MEENU, not MainOO.

Don't take any more chances on pronunciation; be sure. Our 32-page booklet gives the 450 words most often mispronounced, tells how to talk correctly.

Send 10¢ for your copy of Guide to Correct Pronunciation to The Journal, Home Service, 115 East Fifth street, Santa Ana. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, and the name of booklet.

News About El Toro Folks

By MRS. CARRIE G. DREWS

Mrs. John H. Taylor, president of the El Toro Woman's club, returned Saturday from Walla Walla, Wash., where she has spent the past several weeks caring for her mother, before the latter's death.

Miss Nifa Seranno, life-long resident of the hills above El Toro, was known for her kind and motherly deeds, and will be missed greatly by all who knew her.

Mrs. Irene Famularo and little daughter are here for a visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Whistler.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Waring of Laguna and Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Whistler of El Toro have just returned home after spending two delightful weeks at the desert, visiting several points of interest and at the same time enjoying home life in their trailers.

May 13th, Irvine school played El Toro school here. The El Toro boys led Irvine until the last inning, when Irvine came through with a 7-6 win.

May 17, the boys of the eighth grade were taken to Santa Ana by R. H. Prothero on an excursion through the county jail, the courthouse, and the hall of records.

Then later, through an orange packing house, where grading, packing, and shipping were witnessed. The most interesting thing was the new X-ray machine which was used to eliminate frozen fruit.

A large number of Miss Charlene Tait's friends gathered at the El Toro hall in honor of her eighteenth birthday anniversary May 17. It was a paper sack party with overalls and gloves completing the costumes. Many paper sack masks which represented animals, fowl, and men, were real pieces of art. Miss Irma James and Mrs. Heacock, as Chinese girls, and George K. Fox, as a mule, carried off the prizes, and when George did bray! Forfeits were paid and redeemed by all who came unmasked, which added to the fun of the evening.

Charlene was crowned Queen of the May by her grandmother, Mrs. Reuben Waterman.

WALNUT MEN READY FOR PEST WAR

'Go Signal' Will Be Given At Meeting
On Saturday

This season's pest control recommendations for Orange county walnut orchards will be featured at the county-wide walnut growers field day to be held Saturday morning near Orange. Every grower will want to know the best time to spray and what materials to use for this season's control program, said Roy Black, deputy agricultural commissioner, who will tell the pest control condition in all districts of the county.

A new pest not yet in Orange county but at the borders will be described by Dr. A. M. Boyce of the experiment station. It is the walnut husk fly, which has done considerable damage to the walnut crop in several Southern California areas.

The new multiple stage dehydrator adapted to small orchards will be demonstrated to the growers attending. It has been recently completed at the Charbonneau orchard, where the field meeting is scheduled.

Other speakers on the morning program will include J. P. Fairbank, agricultural engineer, University of California; W. C. Teach of the Walnut association, and Farm Advisor Harold E. Wahlberg. All growers are urged to attend the session, beginning at 9 a.m., and closing at noon.

The Charbonneau orchard is located on West Chapman avenue, about a mile west of Orange. The meeting is held under the auspices of the farm advisor's office representing the University of California here, and the walnut department of the farm bureau.

COWBOY WEDS ENGLISH GIRL

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Love was laughing today, not exactly at locksmiths, but laughing anyway. For after much tribulation, Rosemary Heartbeare Bearne Molleaux-Montgomery, beautiful and reputedly wealthy English woman, has become Mrs. Norman Miller, wife of a Texas cowboy, Las Vegas authorities revealed today.

The ceremony was performed Wednesday by Judge Marion B. Early. The bride said she was 24, a resident of London, England. The groom said he was from Canadian, Texas, and was 21 years old.

It all started a week ago when the couple went to Pasadena, Cal., and applied for a license to wed. Meanwhile, Mrs. Jean Owen of Los Angeles asked Pasadena authorities to hold the license. She said she was Miller's mother, and that she was not of age and did not have her permission to marry.

D. A. V. Delegates To Convention Are Selected

Plans for Memorial day and election of delegates to the annual state D. A. V. convention were the major items of business at the semi-monthly meeting of Jack Fisher chapter, Disabled American Veterans of the World war, at the K. C. hall Wednesday evening, with Commander John Cleary presiding.

Heading the committee in charge of arrangements, James C. Wylie reported everything in readiness for Memorial day and said graves of all members in distant places will be cared for by the local D. A. V. units, including that of the late William J. Murphy at Arlington cemetery, Washington, D. C.

Mr. Murphy was a past national commander of the organization and instituted the local unit here in 1927.

Commander Cleary will head a large delegation to the annual convention at Ventura June 20-23. In addition to Cleary, the following were elected: Harry D. Edwards, Virgil Marr, James C. Wylie, M. D. Murphy, Dean Laub, Harry S. Pickard, Frank Wolters, Arthur Nielsen, F. J. DeSutter, Herbert Thwaite, Earl B. Hawks, Jules W. Markei, F. J. Kelly, Santa Ana; David R. Day and Harley P. Brewer, Fullerton; Ellis Gadis, Anaheim; Louis A. Riehl, Tustin; Harry J. Starr, Yorba Linda, and John Thompson, Costa Mesa.

Visitors who addressed the meeting included Past State Commander John F. Burke, James Swope of the Riverside D. A. V., and James Milford, Costa Mesa.

State Counselor Post Recreated

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—President Roosevelt has signed a bill reconstituting the position of counselor of the state department.

The post, which carries a salary of $10,000 annually, was authorized on the recommendation of Secretary Hull.

PACT ENDS STRIKE
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Granted union recognition and pay increases, 29 patternmakers were back at work in the Vultee Aircraft factory today. The company agreed to a $1 an hour minimum now and eventually to raise the wage to $1.12. In addition, a five-day, 40-hour week was instituted, with time and a half for overtime.

I COVER the SENATE By SEN. HARRY WESTOVER

There is considerable sentiment out over the state that the cost of operation of government should be restricted in order to keep down the tax rate. No group in the state has been more insistent about keeping down the cost of government than the farmer group. They have insisted on many occasions that the governor's budget be not increased and that special appropriations be few and far between.

Holding to this theory in one hand, the farm groups of the state, with the other hand, are demanding special appropriations running into millions of dollars.

There have been introduced in the legislature up to the present time special appropriation bills for state and county fairs to the magnificent total of $6,000,000. The idea seems to be to get as much as possible from the legislature and the farmer groups out over the state are insisting for their pro rata in demanding millions for their county fairs.

Of more than passing importance to the welfare of Orange county is assembly bill No. 272, which passed the lower house of the legislature May 13 with only four dissenting votes. A. B. 272 was introduced by Assemblyman Andreas of San Bernardino county and provides for an appropriation of $800,000 for the purchase or rent of tools, machinery and equipment to continue work on the flood control project of the Santa Ana river.

The bill was strenuously opposed by Assemblymen Kuchel and Watson in the assembly, but only two assemblymen would combine with them to vote against the bill. Assemblyman Andreas has been passing out to his friends in the assembly San Bernardino county oranges and oranges brought results when it came to the counting of the votes.

The bill will be referred to the finance committee in the senate. The chairman of the senate finance committee is Senator Swing of San Bernardino county.

During the January session Senator Swing stated that the Andreas bill was ill-advised. Subsequent to the passage of the bill to the senate, the assembly, Senator Swing further stated that he was opposed to any measure which would disrupt the so-called "Three county compact" which exists between San Bernardino, Riverside and Orange counties relative to the Santa Ana river, and said that he would be against any measure which was opposed by either of the three counties.

Senator Phillips of Riverside county also indicates opposition to the bill. Assemblyman Andreas will find when the bill comes up for hearing in the assembly finance committee, that it is opposed by the senators from the three counties affected. It is the opinion of those who are concerned in the matter that the bill will not pass out of the senate committee. If, perchance, it does come out of committee, then it is rather confidently predicted that it can be beaten on the floor of the senate.

Although a senate bill is now pending before the lower house making the California legislature non-partisan, nevertheless, partisan attitudes are expressed now and then on the floor of the senate.

The Democratic members of the senate were much amused the other day when Republican Senator Walter McGovern of San Francisco was urging defeat of A. B. 1177 because the bill was contrary to the principles of the Roosevelt administration. On the same date a Republican assemblyman urged passage of a certain bill before the senate committee upon the ground that it coincided with the Roosevelt program.

Those members of the senate who debated so vehemently during the January session over the President's plan on reorganization of the supreme court, have watched with much interest the outcome of the congressional election in the tenth congressional district.

Harry Hopkins, a Republican leader, was assured the election in that district by Republican warhorses.

Justus Cramer of Orange county, the head of the Republican central committee, was one of those who advised Mr. Hopkins that the sentiment of the people was against President Roosevelt in his reorganization plan and Mr. Hopkins was advised whenever possible and on every occasion to announce that he was opposed to the President's plan.

Those in charge predicted an overwhelming victory upon this issue. An unknown Democrat succeeded in winning the election and Republican leaders are yet at a loss to understand why it was when this was the only real issue in the campaign, that the Democrat candidate received nearly two votes to one.

With the two houses of the legislature in agreement as to adjournment on May 28, certain members of the lower house are wondering what they are going to do for a living until the next session of the legislature. One of the most promising vehicles of employment seems to be interim committees. The assembly has appointed so many interim committees to serve until the next session of the legislature that it is necessary for some of the members to serve upon as many as three committees. One member of the legislature during the past week, in obtaining support for the appointment of an interim committee, was frank in saying that it was necessary for him to have a job during the next few months.

Although he had no education nor other qualifications relative to the interim committee which he wished formed and organized, nevertheless, he wanted to start in a two year study on the subject in question at the expense of the people of the state.

Some years back it was the custom to appoint joint interim committees but, inasmuch as the senate has refused to cooperate in such matters, the assembly is now appointing its own committees. If the senate wishes to investigate anything the investigation will have to be carried out over the help and support of the assembly members.

Even in Sacramento are recorded as voting.

One Santa Ana visitor was in the assembly some days ago when she overheard an assemblyman say to a seatmate, "I am going out for a while, vote for me while I am gone." The seatmate asked "How shall I vote?" The answer was, "I don't care, vote the way you do." There is a report going around that on one measure a certain assemblyman cast four different votes, one for himself and three for three absent assemblymen.

Voting doesn't mean anything in the assembly at the present time unless it is a favorable vote.

If the vote is unfavorable the record is expunged. However, sometimes the speaker doesn't even go to that trouble. The other night a vote was taken upon an important measure. It failed to pass.

Whereupon the speaker said, "Tear up the roll call and throw it into the ash can." Up to Friday morning, May 14, the assembly has passed 958 assembly bills. In the same period of time it had refused passage to 17.

Pope Will Use Loud Speakers

CASTEL GANDOLFO, (AP)—Pope Pius has ordered loud speakers placed in the public audience chambers of his villa to magnify his failing voice. Due to a heart condition, prelates said, the pontiff's voice has been failing after only a few minutes and only pilgrims close by can hear him.

The citation was issued by Superior Judge James G. Conlan, attorney for the manufacture of American aircraft for export to world wide markets.

"Foreign trade in the field of American aviation has proved the backbone of the industry," he continued.

McDonough's firm was termed the "fountain head of corruption" in the report of Special Investigator Edwin Atherton.

McDonough Faces Contempt Charge

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Peter McDonough, bail bond broker, has been cited to appear in superior court next Thursday and show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court for refusing to answer questions before the grand jury investigating police graft charges.

The citation was issued by Superior Judge James G. Conlan, attorney for the manufacture of American aircraft for export to world wide markets.

"Foreign trade in the field of American aviation has proved the backbone of the industry," he continued.

McDonough's firm was termed the "fountain head of corruption" in the report of Special Investigator Edwin Atherton.

Plane Embargo Warning Issued

WILMINGTON, (AP)—Donald Douglas, president of the world's largest aircraft manufacturing corporation, warns that if Congress puts an embargo on the export of American planes as war material, employment will be curtailed.

In an address here, Douglas said certain United States senators "think there is something unholy attached to the manufacture of American aircraft for export to world wide markets.

"Foreign trade in the field of American aviation has proved the backbone of the industry," he continued.

Lauder Sings for Hollywood

Sir Harry Lauder, noted Scotch comedian, stopped in Hollywood for what he said was but a brief pause in a world tour, but guessing started immediately as to whether he would appear in the movies. Here he is, singing a Scotch duet with Ella Logan, film singer, at a reception given for him.

SPAIN DOOMS 2 NAZI FLIERS

BILBAO, Spain. (AP)—Two capture. German aviators were sentenced to death today on charges of military rebellion and murder.

The two officers, downed on the Esque front, were convicted by a popular tribunal of waging warfare against the government of Spain in the forces of Insurgent General Francisco Franco.

They are Captain Walter Kienzel and Lieutenant Gunther Schulze.

A Febus (governmental Spanish) agency account of the trial said Captain Kienzel testified he had been in the regular German army before he came to Spain voluntarily last January.

Influenced by German press photographers, who convinced him that Soviet Russia was aiding the Spanish government, Captain Kienzel enlisted to oppose the "Russian influence."

Lieutenant Schulze testified he sailed for Spain aboard the Italian ship Conte Rosso and reached the civil war front through Portugal after disembarking at Lisbon. He, too, said he came to Spain voluntarily after two years in the German army.

New L.A. Flood Bill Presented

SACRAMENTO. (AP)—A bill to change the state reclamation board into a state flood control board and increase its membership from seven to 11 has been introduced by Senator Rich at the request of Los Angeles authorities.

The measure would empower the board to make preliminary supplies for a co-ordinated program of flood control, and appropriate $100,000 for obtaining data for a plan to be submitted to Washington in an effort to obtain federal aid.

No Successor To Justice Yet

WASHINGTON. (AP)—President Roosevelt reiterated today he had given no thought as yet to the question of appointing a successor to Associate Justice Willis Van Devanter of the supreme court. The justice will retire June 2.

Suspect Removed

J. Turner Watson (above), 26-year-old former Denver university law student, was taken from the intercoastal liner Santa Rosa when it docked at San Pedro. He was arrested on charges of stealing $200,000 in cash and bonds from his aunt, Mrs. Martha Blous, Denver widow.

END IN GARMENT STRIKE NEAR

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Less than 24 hours after it was called, the strike in the garment industry was virtually ended today, with 1400 of the total 2000 strikers back at work.

Union officials said 65 shops had signed new union agreements, granting workers' demands for a closed shop, a 12 per cent wage increase and overtime.

The clothing workers struck yesterday morning when called by two local unions affiliated with the committee for industrial organization. No picket lines were established. Approximately 1200 shops were affected.

A compromise is being effected, both sides said, on the unsettled question of a straight 36-hour week. During peak periods of the season the workers will be on a 40-hour week.

U. S. PLAN ON WORK, PAY OUTLINED

Connery to Introduce Measure Next Week In Congress

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Congressmen closely in touch with labor matters predicted today the administration's general labor legislation would seek to establish a 40-hour work week and a basic minimum wage of 40 cents an hour.

The administration bill, to be recommended by President Roosevelt in a special message to Congress, will be introduced by Chairman Connery (D., Mass.) of the house labor committee.

Connery would not discuss details. But other members said the provisions of the bill probably would be flexible so as to take care of industries having labor problems peculiar to themselves.

The bill, they indicated, would set up a commission to work out details of the program. They said the commission probably would have power to fix maximum hours in some cases of 35 hours a week and to establish minimum wages in brackets ranging up to a limit of $1500 a year.

The bill was expected to provide a flat prohibition against child labor.

Designer Faces Homicide Trial

Trial of Ansel Gilbert Woods, Los Angeles theater designer who is charged with negligent homicide, was set for July 12 by Superior Judge James L. Allen yesterday afternoon.

Woods will be tried before a jury on charges of being酒醉 when the car he was driving crashed into a parked truck, killing his passenger, James William Johns, Los Angeles. The accident took place April 25, 1937, near Dana Villa.

Artist Captures Jamboree Spirit

WASHINGTON D.C.
JUNE 30 - JULY 9

This happy Scout portrayed on Norman Rockwell's painting for the official poster of the National Scout Jamboree typifies the spirit of friendship and adventure which will be the lot of 25,000 American boys who will camp with Scouts of other lands on 350 acres at Washington, D. C., loaned them by Congress for their Jamboree from June 30 to July 9. In the shadow of the Washington Monument a tented city will be the scene of the greatest demonstration of Scouting ever held in the new world. The national grand review and President Roosevelt's welcome will attract large throngs to the nation's capital. Other principal events include a Convocation at the Washington Monument on the evening of July 4 and a world brotherhood pageant to be held in connection with the closing campfire.

New England Springtime

A road between Unionville and Farmington, Conn., was flooded when the Farmington river, augmented by spring rains, went over its banks. This picture shows automobiles splashing over the flooded highway.

Quadruplets Celebrate Seventh Birthday

25 Men Leaving WPA Jobs Daily

Workers on WPA construction projects are leaving government rolls at the rate of 25 a day to reenter private employment. Dan Mulherron, WPA director, said here today.

Mulherron said that there are today only 1248 men on construction jobs, and that this number is decreasing daily. The 750 total for women employed in the professional and technical classes remains static.

These men are going into agricultural work, Mulherron pointed out, and it is the usual trend during the spring and summer months. They will undoubtedly return to some sort of government support after their agricultural jobs have been concluded.

Carol's Brother Ousted

Here is Prince Nicholas, King Carol's only brother, ousted from the Rumanian royal family because he refused to give up his commoner wife. She is shown with him. She formerly was Helen Dumitrescu. They were married in 1931 and have a 2-year-old son.

U. P. PLANS TO BUILD 3988 NEW CARS

NEW YORK. (AP)—Union Pacific Railroad Co. announced today details of a freight car building program involving $14,000,000. At its Omaha, Neb., and Portland, Ore., shops the company will build 2088 box cars, and at the Grand Island, Neb., shops 700 automobiles cars will be constructed.

American Car & Foundry Co. will build for the road 1000 ballast and coal cars, and 200 tank cars will be turned out by the General America Transportation Corp.

All the cars are scheduled for completion as rapidly as possible during 1937, the company stated, in order to take care of expanding transcontinental freight traffic.

METHODISTS TO HAVE PICNIC

The annual all-church picnic of the First Methodist church will take place tomorrow at Irvine park, with Sunday school and other members of the congregation gathering at the tennis courts at noon.

Games and other recreation will be provided.

Those wishing transportation were advised to come to the church before 9:30 a. m. and 11 a. m. Leo Myers is in charge of the transportation committee.

The Friendly Circle class is in charge of providing coffee. Warren Freeman will be in charge of providing lemonade. R. H. McArthur and Herbert Thomas are in charge of recreation.

Dairymen Plan Market Conference

Farm bureau dairy department members and other dairymen of the county will gather at the farm bureau offices next Thursday night to prepare for Friday's hearing on a milk marketing area for Orange county.

They are studying on establishment of a milk marketing area which will be held next Friday morning at 10 o'clock in the supervisor's room at the courthouse. Application for the area was filed by petition, circulated among bureau members and producer-distributor organizations, said R. D. Flaherty, secretary of the bureau.

Ford Reads Newspaper

In an amazing demonstration, the Human Ford actually reads a newspaper. This 1937 Ford V-8 is equipped with photo-electric cells and sound systems which make possible such an unusual illusion. A bit exhibit at the Chicago World's Fair, this car apparently talks, feels, smells, acts, and drives, just as if it had a human mind. The Human Ford will make several demonstrations here today and Saturday at George Dunton's local Ford dealership.

CRUICKSHANK IS ORATORY WINNER

George Cruickshank, talented young orator, won the gold trophy as best speaker in El Camino chapter, Toastmasters club, at gala ladies' night gathering last night.

Speaking on "Have You Stopped Looking?" Cruickshank competed against Ferris Scott, Braden Finch, Dr. C. J. Ruley, Fred McCandless and Ernest S. Wooster, winners of a six-month contest which the club has just completed. Ted Blanding was toastmaster for the evening and Ralph Smedley, founder of Toastmaster's International, was master of ceremonies.

Ladies' night brought out the largest group that has attended the chapter in months, according to President Scott.

Malcolm Macurda was chief critic, others being Glenn Tidball, R. G. Green, E. M. Sundquist, W. H. Croddy, Fred Ely and William McQuarie. A consolation contest will be the club's feature next week, the meeting to be held at the A. M. E. church, 1824 West Second street.

AGREE ON CUT IN POWER CHARGE

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Nevada and California reached agreement today on proposed legislation which would result in a reduction of approximately one-half a million kilowatt hour on Boulder dam power charges.

Eight Young Car Thieves Nabbed

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Police today arrested eight boys—seven of them 15 and one 14—and accused them of stealing about 45 automobiles for joy rides during the past three months. Detectives said the boys would drive the cars until they ran out of gas.

Had they been his own puppies, Cubby couldn't have been more disturbed when The Journal reporter lifted the chicks from their pen to see how Cubby watched over them in the open. Cubby moaned and moaned.

He rushed up to lick the chicks with his pink tongue as they were set on the grass. As chicks wandered away from the flock, Cubby ran after and like a shepherd, cool.

They learned he never hurts them, and his body is warm, and nice to snuggle up to when shadows grow long and the air grows cool.

Boston Bull Dog Mothers Flock of 15 Baby Chicks Being Raised at S. A. Home

BY PAUL BODENHAMER

Cubby, a little Boston bull not yet two years old is the busiest and most loving mother 15 baby chicks ever had.

Right now this unusual pet, owned by Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McKeown, 1314 South Parton street, is either standing guard over his little flock and keeping them rounded up, or he's lying in their pen with baby chicks crawling over his back.

In other respects Cubby is just a normal, boisterous dog, but he doesn't chase chickens like other little dogs do.

When the baby chicks were purchased a few days ago, Cubby insisted on climbing into their box.

He rushed up to lick the chicks with his pink tongue as they were set on the grass. As chicks wandered away from the flock, Cubby ran after and like a shepherd, cool.

In the past year or so, I've had several occasions where I handed out numerous back-patting to the Midway City firemen.

They've planted lawns and built a new fire hall and have done lots of nice community things, in addition to fighting fires. Now, they're at it again!

It seems that the Woman's club was a bit embarrassed—financially, of course—and that a few checkbooks would have helped out considerably in conducting what-ever woman's clubs do.

Without any outside suggestions, unless a few wives did some talking beforehand, the fire fighters upped and donated $25 to the cause.

Wasn't that amazing? I mean for the men to donate the money, not for a fireman to have that much at one time!

And, not to be outdone, members of the chamber of commerce also dug down deep and handed over $10 for the club. Just as a good will offering. My informant tells me that when the meeting opened there was exactly 28 cents in the treasury. After the donations, I'm told, there still was 28 cents in the treasury, but Bob Hazard was $10 shy, although I wouldn't know.

That, to me, smells something like community service!

And now I'm going to stick out my chin and get into an argument with a guy who knows more about the subject we're going to argue about than I ever will. But, nevertheless, he can't scare me. Much.

It's George Kellogg, the Imperial Highwayman from Yorba Linda.

You might possibly remember a few days ago I beffed about the state highway department bragging about the Santa Ana canyon road—how it carries the second heaviest truck traffic in the state, and so on. And then they turned right around and built a measly little two-lane highway to carry all that traffic!

Anyway, George, in a letter, took exception to my remarks. He contended that I was just in a hurry and maybe started too late for where I was going.

Right here and now, in just a few words, I'm going to stop out of clock, plenty.

George, as everyone knows, is one of the leading lights in the Imperial Highway association. He's been a booster for the fast new road ever since it was born. And he still is.

And, if I'm not mistaken, he's the author of the slogan for that highway. Here she is: "Wide for safety, straight for speed."

Got that first part? "Wide for safety!"

I'd like to see him argue out of that!

George does advance an idea or two, in spite of losing that argument. "How much good would it do you or anyone else, for that matter, to have three or four lanes of pavement at Sulphur Slide without having any improvement from the county line to Corona?" And did you ever stop to think why that portion of Santa Ana canyon isn't improved? The state has had $205,000 laying around getting rusty, to be used whenever you and the rest of Orange county gets settled on a flood control program."

George also told me a thing or two about the next Imperial meeting, but we'll take that up later.

We will now have a few minutes of silent meditation in thanks for action of Laguna's city council Wednesday night.

They heaved the bathing suit ordinance out of the window.

For the benefit of you 38 folk who favored the issue in a straw vote, don't think I don't agree that there are some good features in such an ordinance. There are, plenty of 'em.

But I have been worrying for some time whether Laguna was going to be merely a place where there are a bunch of houses and a lot of screwy laws and gangs of people snarling at each other, or whether it was going to continue to be the sort of sleepy, good-natured, tolerant place with a "welcome" mat on the stoop, like it has been for years and years.

Thinking we're all going to come like the Art Colony!

Paul Palmer, the Sultan of Lido Isle, was busy yesterday afternoon. I could hear him in his office, selling lots like hotcakes or something.

So I went away from there, and watched one fisherman at work under the Lido Isle bridge, where formerly there would have been dozens.

Who says publicity doesn't pay? I warned 'em away from that spot just a couple of days ago!

FAMED FLYER ADDRESSES 200 CLUB MEMBERS AT ORANGE

AIR FUTURE DESCRIBED BY MARTIN

Builder of Clipper Ships Predicts Huge Planes For Travel, War

ORANGE—About 200 Rotarians, their wives, Lions, 20-30 club members and guests gathered Thursday noon in the American Legion hall to hear Glenn Martin tell of past accomplishments and future hopes of aeronautics.

He was introduced by Terry Stephenson, Santa Ana, who served as program chairman. The speaker divided his talk in two parts, concerning commercial and military aeronautics. Although no regular service has been established across the Atlantic ocean, everything is in readiness for such a service, he said.

New Ships Told

The new ships are being built to serve during the second phase of transatlantic flying, he added, these ships to weigh 100,000 pounds and capable of carrying 40 passengers, 22,000 pounds of baggage, and will travel 5000 miles without refueling.

A minimum crew of 10 men will be used, Martin said, the flight engineer regulating the fuel and horsepower. The pilot does nothing but navigate, guiding the ship entirely by instruments, and in radio telephone communication with the crew. These ships will be double-decked planes, with small cabins for the passengers, that they may sleep. The trip will take 18½ hours from New York to Europe, he added.

Describes Shells

In outlining the military use of planes, Martin said that 1100-pound shells are most effective for the dollars invested, of any size shot from planes. The 2000-pound shell used in the navy will sink any battleship, he added, when equipped with a delayed detonator.

Special guests were Mayor A. C. Boice, James Workmen, George Franzen, Joe (Lewis) Betchart, Talbert, who learned to fly at 15 years of age, and received his pilot's license at the age of 16.

FIREMEN GIVE CLUB $25

MIDWAY CITY—Members of the local firemen's association voted a gift of $25.00 to the Woman's club at their regular monthly meeting in the fire hall Monday night.

Members also decided to complete furnishing of the kitchen of the fire hall by installing a sink. Fireman Ed Von Rohr offered to do the sink and tiling.

Present at the meeting were Chief Harold Robertson, Dr. Russell S. Johnson, N. A. Nelson, Chester Campbell, J. A. Houllan, Ed Von Rohr, Hank Cook and Jess Beaver.

Orange Man to Buy Dogs in Foreign Lands

ORANGE—H. C. Schnackenberg raises German shepherd dogs and when he visits Europe this summer he will acquire more of that famous breed and bring them home with him, it was learned today.

He will sail from New York May 22 on the S. S. Bremen, and visit relatives in Germany and also will spend some time in Switzerland, Sweden and either Holland or Norway, starting home Aug. 1.

George also told me a thing or two about the next Imperial meeting, but we'll take that up later.

We will now have a few minutes of silent meditation in thanks for action of Laguna's city council Wednesday night.

SHOWER FETES ANNUAL FEAST RECENT BRIDE FOR Y.M.C.A.

WESTMINSTER—Mrs. Ray Y. M. C. A. leaders' treat was given Wednesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. by members of the board of directors. Heading the committee was Ray Still, assisted by W. R. Aebersold and Harold Girtton. A steak dinner was served and President R. W. Hull conducted a period of reports from the various leaders.

He paid tribute to men and boys who had led clubs for the past year, and thanked them on behalf of the Y. M. C. A. Leaders reported larger clubs the past year than ever before, and an increasing interest in the work.

A short board meeting was held afterward, during which the chairman of the summer camp committee, Charles Robinson, announced the summer camp schedule for Camp Osceola. The older boys will go to camp from July 22 to Aug. 3, and the younger boys from Aug. 28 to Sept. 4. About 35 leaders and board members were present.

Wanted: Bits of Vision

WHAT do you think Santa Ana needs most? Or Orange County? These are not foolish questions; they are important. No city, no county ever progressed beyond the limits of the vision of its citizens.

And no citizen of any city or county may truly call himself a complete citizen unless he holds a vision of progress toward greatness for his city and county.

Cities and counties grow to greatness bit by bit—a bit out of this man's vision, a bit from that woman's ambition.

What is the best, most important part of YOUR vision of Santa Ana's greatness?

What is the most vital part of your vision for the county of Orange? • • •

Here are a few hints from The Journal's vision for the future greatness of Santa Ana and Orange county:

New buildings and an adequate campus for Santa Ana junior college.

Enlarging of the channel and full development of Newport harbor.

A two-way coast highway with a safety island down the center lighted by fog lamps.

The creation of a modern county civic center somewhere between Santa Ana and Orange.

More and adequate parks for Santa Ana, especially in the south section.

A large and modern tourist type hotel in Santa Ana.

Rapid transportation to and from Los Angeles.

A complete flood control and water conservation program.

Better traffic regulations and enforcement.

Improvement of downtown parking facilities.

Development of a mountain highway across Saddleback.

More homes and apartment houses. • • •

Dreams? Yes, dreams of greatness and growth for our city and county.

What are the pleasing actualities of today but past dreams come true?

The Journal has a lot more such dreams—or bits of vision—for Santa Ana and for Orange county.

But ours will keep. What we want now is to know some of your dreams. We want to list as many "bits of vision" as we can for all to see.

Out of such bits of vision the future of Santa Ana and Orange county will be built.

What is your best "bit"?

Phrase it in 25 words or less and send or bring it in on the following blanks: • • •

Plug Up the Leaks

OUR American neutrality bill, designed to prohibit the export of arms to belligerent nations, has sprung a leak.

It has been discovered that Russia is negotiating for the purchase of two battleships. The neutrality bill does not forbid export of battleship parts, so the war craft will be sent over, piece by piece, and assembled in Russian waters.

It is not a question of Russia, or any other individual nation. It is a question of the spirit of the law, which intends that American-made goods should not be used by other nations for use in war.

That is what was meant when the law was passed. A knocked-down battleship is as much an instrument of death as one assembled this side the ocean.

And such evasion of the spirit of the law could get America tangled as tightly in the web of European war intrigue as could direct violation of the law.

Since the law has been found faulty, congress should see to it that the leaks are plugged, so that we may, in truth, be a nation that stands for world peace, even at the sacrifice of wealth to the munitions and arms makers.

It takes a fellow who has much to comfortably advise one who has little.

Seek End of Hell Weeks

FAIR-SIGHTED collegians and alumnae are attempting to make an end of the fraternity "Hell week," when the initiate undergoes brutal paddling and becomes the butt of all the jokes of upperclassmen.

Nineteen national officers, representing 27 academic fraternities, recently attended a Fraternity week conference on the University of Minnesota campus.

The delegates recommended the abolition of "Hell week" and recommended the substitution of lectures, social gatherings and round-table discussions.

Such recommendations are worthy of consideration of every college fraternity. Perhaps such a procedure would take away the comic strip variety of collegian from the minds of the average adult.

Thoughts while strolling: Irving Berlin usually looks as though he had just lost his best friend. No modern heating can compare to the blazing open fire. Speaking voices that have that certain something: Leslie Howard, Shirley Temple, Edgar Bergen and A. L. Alexander.

Radio red light: Too much self-exploitation among artists. Few singers float away on a high note with more ease than Helen Jepson. Rainbow get-ups: Ham Fisher's. Nobody has burst out in a pearl gray derby since Raymond Hitchcock went up the long, long trail.

Rhyme: Irving Caesar has a funny bezer. Hope Hampton's hair is the shade of that new pink grapefruit from Texas. Memory: Art Hickman playing his whistle accompaniment to his tune, "Whispering."

Sudden thought: Never saw a white-haired waiter. Handsome gentlemen out of the old C. D. Gibson drawings: Hal Phyfe, H. T. Webster and James Montgomery Flagg. I often itch to bush into one of those "Cutting by Appointment Only" barber shops without an appointment, just to see if they'd take me on.
